In an effort to discover the most talented children in our parish, Cultural Crossroads, the organizers of the annual Spring Arts Festival are offering parish-wide open auditions to all elementary, middle, junior and high school students.

“Traditionally parish schools were offered the opportunity to sponsor open preliminary contests to their students. Some schools participated. Some didn’t. It was for this reason that we decided that we needed to make a better attempt to find the hidden and undiscovered talent that we know exists in our parish.

Our children deserve to have every opportunity to be recognized and to be encouraged. It is our hope that our search for the most talented children will result in a better understanding of how we can support, promote and encourage the youth of our various communities.

We need your help to do this. If you know of a child with special talent, let us know. If your school is active in preliminary competition, we want to know. And if you have any suggestions on how we can better serve the children of our parish and their families, we want to know.”

Three students from each school will be selected during these open auditions to advance to the finals at the upcoming April 26th Spring Arts Festival in Minden. These students will represent their respective schools in the ‘Great Talent Search.’

The winning entries at the Spring Arts Festival coupled with the scores received from the various art, poetry and craft entries will be included in the final selection of our parish’s most coveted title of “Most Talented School.”

Join us in recognizing and celebrating the talent of our children!
